To: Robin Neff <robwest@gmail.com>

Grendell claims to be conservative but he is anything that serves his purpose. He is power hungry and is narcissistic. He often says one thing and does the other. He is notorious for using the media and others who seek to have power and control. When those puppets no longer serve a use he discards them. He claims to be a Constitutional expert and yet conveniently misuses and misinterprets the law if it gets in his way.

I wish he would go away but for now we are stuck with him. However he has lost a lot of supporters and is doing damage control over his micromanagement of the Geauga Park District. I say kick him while he's down.

Ok, don't know if you saw this but there is something you can help me with if you know.

I really didn't follow Grendel's actions in Columbus. Sorry, I didn't. Is he far right leaning, middle what? If he was far right in office, he isn't acting like it in this case. I am a mix of things depending on the issue, but, voted for Romney, Kasich, pretty much Republican but some Libertarians. I follow a number of Republicans on facebook and our Rep Dave Joyce. His office is quite responsive and respectful.

My ideology shouldn't be foreign to Grendel, and after all it is the law, family placement first. It doesn't seem that he cares much what the laws or rules are. But since we are stuck with this, it would be nice to know whether he will be sympathetic to some degree. Although, expecting him to be consistent could very well just be too much to expect. It was our court action in the first place!

To: Nancy McArthur <nmcarthur@windstream.net>

ok i understand, but, know this, Grendel is threatening to send Haley to the detention home because she said the foster mother hit her and they sent her to the Christian Children's home and she is now acting out after he barbarically ripped a child who had been in the hospital away from all her family.

I sent a complaint in about the GAL to the CASA GAL program of the county and i am going to work on my complaint to the disciplinary counsel of the supreme court tomorrow.

Here are a few of my favorite quotes because I think they apply to the people who were able to run against that monster and didn't: "It has been said that for evil men to accomplish their purpose it is only necessary that good men should do nothing." Charles F. Aked, October 1916, The San Jose Mercury Herald

"Let not any one pacify his conscience by the delusion that he can do no harm if he takes no part, and forms no opinion. Bad men need nothing more to compass their ends, than that good men should look on and do nothing." - John Stuart Mill, 1867, at the University of St. Andrews

"No man, who is not inflamed by vain-glory into enthusiasm, can flatter himself that his single, unsupported, desultory, unsystematic endeavours are of power to defeat the subtle designs and united Cabals of ambitious citizens. When bad men combine, the good must associate; else they will fall, one by one, an unpitied sacrifice in a contemptible struggle." - Edmund Burke, 1770

"God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; courage to change the things I can; and wisdom to know the difference." - Serenity Prayer

Hi Robin,

I don't mean to be disrespectful of your situation but I just don't have the time or energy to read these emails, therefore I am asking you to refrain from sending these to me.

I wish you the best in your pursuit of justice for your granddaughter and I wish I could help more, but I am very limited in my ability in this area.

God bless you and your family.

Sincerely,
